STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

OFFICE OF
THE PRESIDENT

101 BROAD STREET
Plattsburgh, NY
12901-2681
Tel: (518) 564-2010
Fax: (518) 564-3932

Congratulations to the graduating class of 2000!

Like you and your loved ones, I am very proud of your academic and professional accomplishments. You have affirmed your intellectual prowess at one of the finest institutions within the State University of New York, the largest and best system of higher education in the country. We are told by former alumni that you are readily equipped for the next phase of your life, whether it be in the professions, graduate school, or other intellectual ventures.

As a Plattsburgh State University graduate, I'm sure you share our pride and pleasure at the achievements of your classmates and alma mater. We are a stronger institution because of the extraordinary support of our alumni. Almost every past and present student, faculty, and staff member embraces a commitment to the education of future generations of Plattsburgh State students, and I am sure your class will be no different.

Plattsburgh State University is a very special college. The relationships you have developed, the growth you have experienced, and the knowledge that you have mastered have prepared you well for a diversity of avenues. I am quite confident that each of you will make your mark in this world. I have had the pleasure of interacting with many of you this past year and have found that you are enterprising, congenial, energetic, and inspiring. As you take further steps toward new heights, embrace change with confidence and challenge perceived limitations.

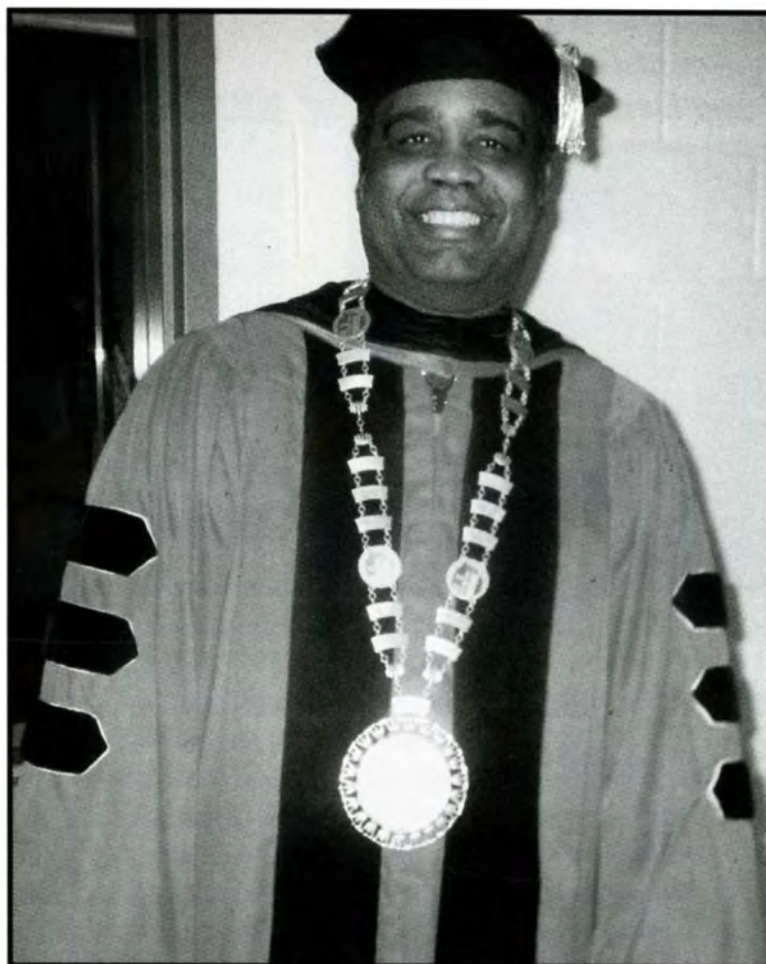

This is truly an exciting time for us. As the Institution moves into the new millennium, we must advance campus technology, think differently about teaching and learning for the professions, and respond to an increasingly global society. The world of professional work is also changing. And I, as well as the faculty and staff, eagerly await hearing of your next triumphant adventure.

I wish you the very best of luck, continued growth and much success!

Keep in touch,

Ward Churchill

"A Little Matter of Genocide: Holocaust and Denial in the Americas"

A Keetoowah Band Cherokee, Ward Churchill is one of the most outspoken Native American Activists of our time. Through his published works he explores the themes of genocide in the Americas, historical and legal (re) interpretation of conquest and colonization, and indigenist alternatives to the status quo. Professor of Ethnic Studies and Coordinator of American Indian Studies at the University of Colorado, he is also a past national spokesperson for the Leonard Peltier Defense Committee. His books include Agents of Repression, Fantasies of the Master Race, From a Native Son and A Little Matter of Genocide: Holocaust and Denial in the Americas.

Todd Brewster

"THE CENTURY"

Formally a writer and editor for Life magazine for more than 10 years, Todd Brewster covered and witnessed many of the major events in recent decades. He was alongside Vaclav Havel when the Czech leader and his followers brought down the communist government of Czechoslovakia in 1989. He was in Poland when martial law was imposed to crack down on Solidarity. He ran Life's Washington bureau during the Persian Gulf War and has covered several landmark presidential campaigns. The New York Times best seller THE CENTURY is the product of years of exhaustive research by co-authors Todd Brewster, Peter Jennings and the staff of ABC News. Presenting a selection of the books 500 rarely seen photographs which will be reawaken events for the audience, and video clips from the television series, Mr. Brewster explores the pivotal events of the twentieth century and examines the historical themes of this dynamic time- from war, race relations, and technology, to the arts.

Dave Pelzer
"The Real Heroes"

This rare heart-felt program is given by a man whose life was saved by a system that many ridicule as being useless and incompetent. As a child, Dave endured the horrors of child abuse, which included physical torture, mental cruelty and near starvation. At age 12 he was rescued by teachers, a school nurse, the police department and social services and placed in foster care. As a young adult he was determined to better himself no matter what the odds. In a word Dave Pelzer embodies Esprit: Spirit, Humor, and Wit. He is recognized as one of our nation's most effective and respected communicators. Experience the ultimate victory of the human spirit.

Christopher Edley Jr.
"Affirmative Action and American Values"

Professor at Harvard Law School since 1981, Christopher Edley is founding co-director of the civil rights project, a think tank at Harvard University, and recently has been appointed to serve on the U.S. Civil Rights Commission along with serving as a consultant to the President's Advisory Board on Racial Reconciliation. His recent book, Not All Black and White: Affirmative Action, Race and American Values grew out of his work as social counsel to President Clinton, and director of the White House Review of Affirmative Action. Mr. Edley will present a critical review of recent policy and political developments resulting from President Clinton's Race Initiative and suggest prescriptions for action in the years ahead. Specifically, this address will look at the proposals, accomplishments, and short comings of President Clinton's Report to the Nation.

Mark Sterner
"DUI: A Powerful Lesson"

A member of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, Mark Sterner was a senior marketing major at Johnson and Wales University when a single poor decision forever altered the course of his life. Choosing to drink and drive while on Spring Break, Mark and four friends were in a car accident that left three of Mark's Fraternity brothers dead. In addition to Mark suffering serious injuries, he was sentenced to 23 months in a Florida Prison, where served his time until release in November of 1996. Since his release, Mr. Sterner has delivered his message to over 100,000 students across the country. His lecture program includes a videotape that he and his four friends made in the hours leading up to the crash, ending only minutes before the accident. While the issue of impaired driving is hardly a new one, it is one that continues to resurface as a basic health issue on campuses across the nation.

Mrs. Cathy Moulton

In addition to her housing administrative duties, she is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, a Leadership Honor Society, site supervisor for Alternative Spring Break and the advisor of Alpha Epsilon Phi National Sorority on campus.

Abuse

*You say there's no love
I collapse and I cry
I push and you shove
I keep asking why
You treat me like dirt
All you do is lie
There is nothing but hurt
You don't even try
We are the same height
yet you stand above like a king
Caught in this endless fight
my finger untouched by your ring
Your love is for you only
You think I won't leave
Now I'm gone and you're lonely
left to grieve*

Second Place

ON A COLD SNOWY, SHE LEAVES
POSSIBLY FOREVER, POSSIBLY NOT
THE CHOICES WE MAKE TAKE US OFF
INTO PLACES WE MAY HAVE NOT SEEN
BUT TO THOSE PLACES WE CARRY WHAT WE'VE LEARNED AND THE MEMORIES OF FRIENDS WE'VE MET...
THESE PLACES MAY BE FUN
THEY MAY BE SCARY
SO LONG AS YOU KEEP THOSE
FRIENDS ALIVE IN YOUR MIND,
YOU'LL ALWAYS HAVE THEM TO TALK TO
THEY WILL BE THERE, SOMEPLACE,
IF NOT IN PERSON THAN IN YOUR MEMORIES OF THEM...
SO ON THIS COLD SNOWY DAY WHEN SHE LEAVES ME, I WILL KEEP
THOSE MEMORIES OF HER AND I KNOW THAT SOMEPLACE IN MY HEAD
I WILL HEAR HER LAUGH AND THIS NEW WORLD WON'T SEEM SO BAD.
FOR STACY

Third Place

The Cornerstone of Evolution

I used to skate on the pond across the street from our tin ranch,
The fields smeared in winter white,
Where sticks and sprouting trees stood stiff on bumpy ice,
And I jumped twigs, on blades, slicing quiet air.
I often fell on the cold hardness--purple snow pants, my only padding.
I used to run through field after field behind the pond where snow,
Fringed by woods seemed endless.
My eyes watered from icy winds.
And I would climb the white snow bank,
Shaking branches of evergreen trees,
And breathe in the scent of pine on those cool gray days of youth.
Sometimes gray can be beautiful, I used to think,
As ominous clouds foreshadowed coming snow.

Now the pond has become extinct,
The evergreens succumbed to buzzing chain saws,
White snow now covered in oil and muck,
Left by men who moved their double wide trailers
Onto the fields and snow banks.
They filled the pond with concrete from the quarry,
Slabs of man made rock. And now a dog howls
And relieves himself, where I once played and laughed,
In a world that will never come again.

And we teach our children theories of evolution,
How nature constantly changes, as though men have no control,
Because cells collide, only the fittest survive.
I no longer anticipate the coming snow,
And dread the gray clouds burning holes in the ozone.
And I want to keep believing that gray can be beautiful,
But heaps of burning trash, in metal barrels,
Behind double wide trailers, show me that gray be ugly,
Gray can be very very ugly.

Honorable Mention

Despair and Hope

Determined, even in the rain
The need to touch nature was so strong
Pulling at me, I could feel the strain
Calling me to the farthest shore of the pond.

The shivering bleakness of the morning
Gave rise to the piercing sound of the hawk,
Crying out as it struggled against the wind
Its prey buried deep within its claws.

Struggling, driving, pushing powerfull wings
Trying to return to its home in the trees.
Rain, once gentle and soothing
Now, pouring acidity on the once green leaves
Pelting down without mercy upon the hawk.

Nature fighting with itself and humanity
Overcoming adversity despite the odds.
Feeling a strange shift in the air,
The Great Spirit comes
Giving strength against distress.

Like a lover, the sun
Teasing me with its warmth
Peeking in and out in fun.
From behind the clouds it comes
Penetrating, spraying its rays deep within.

A loon enticing its mate
With a variation of crazy antics
Floating smoothly on its back against the water's surface.
Showing its snow white belly
Shining, glimmering in the sun.

Stick legs kicking up with delight
Loving it, seemingly laughing at life
Radiating musical notes too perfect
To be synthesized by man.

Feeling sensitve to the euphoric presence
Flowing unhampered through me.
Never being so aware of
My existence before,
As in this place.

Listening to the quiet.
Hearing it many times before,
But never really hearing it,
Creeping slowly from the shore.

Then the silence is broken by the rustling sound
Of the rapidly approaching wind.
It flowingly caresses me,
Effortlessly pushing my canoe
Across the mountain pond.

This same harsh, unrelenting wind
That just this morning
Tried defeating
The strong, struggling, crying hawk.

Need

Honorable Mention

I need your love to live
your straying I readily forgive
I gave to you all I had in return you glare and become mad
You fight me more and more your heart, hard and black to the core
I am weakening under your indifference for my love receives nothing but ignorance
You act as though I do not exist
continuing on with your tryst
You are my life, but I am nothing to you there is nothing I would not do to be loved by you
The pure angel in love with the devil's seed
